Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The dwelling built in 1897 at 122 Main Street East was constructed with clay brick construction and sits on a cut stone foundation. The window openings feature segmental arches with header brick detailing above the voussoirs. The original window openings are completed with cut stone sills and some of the original wood windows still remain. The front façade of this structure is dressed with a wrap around porch, decorative fretwork and a unique double stacked porch over the original entry way. The entrances contain the original wood carved doors. The roof line of this structure is quite ornate with matching chimneys on either side of the hipped roof and an additional chimney in the rear of the structure. The historic fish scale slate tiles can still be found on the wraparound porch and the stacked porch.

The dwelling as 122 Main Street East has a high degree of craftsmanship and artistic merit. The dwelling acts as an excellent example of the style of housing historically found along the Main Street East corridor at the end of the 19th Century.

The dwelling at 122 Main Street East provides insight into the successful tender fruit farming industry that put the Town of Grimsby on the map. The development of the farm house estates along Main Street is also directly linked to the introduction of the HG& B electric railway that provided an opportunity for produce to be shipped further and faster than ever before.

The dwelling at 122 Main Street East is physically, functionally, visually and historically linked to its surroundings as it contributes to the Council identified Cultural Heritage Landscape along the historic Main Street corridor. The scale, mass and form of the historic dwelling contributes to the cohesive collection of traditional farm house estates that continued to fill the significant streetscape as the Main Street developed, and further as the prosperity of the fruit industry heightened. The remaining farm house estates act as vessels of the past that visually depict the successful tender fruit industry.
